

The Mississippi School of the Arts' Library Media Center and Book Club will be celebrating the first year of ALA/YALSA's TeenTober by offering book reviews starting in October and continuing monthly throughout the school year. The Book Club will also share the book reviews with a link to the Lincoln Lawrence Franklin Public Library's Teen webpage in a partnership to promote reading with Teens throughout the area and the State.

Watch for the Book Club Book Reviews link on MSA's Library Media webpage!

TeenTober is a new, nationwide celebration hosted by libraries every October and aims to celebrate teens, promote year-round teen services and the innovative ways teen services helps teens learn new skills, and fuel their passions in and outside the library. TeenTober replaces YALSA's previous Teen Read Week™ and Teen Tech Week™ celebrations, allowing libraries the flexibility to choose what to celebrate (digital literacy, reading, technology, writing, etc.) and the length of time for each celebration.
